TESTIMONIAL

Name: Kyaw Win Shwe

Date of Employment: 9 April 2014 till 31 Oct 2018

Department: Office of Alumni Relations (OAR), National University of Singapore

Kyaw was part of the Alumni Cultivation and Engagement (ACE) Team when he first started his career at OAR. His supervisor then, found him to be a fast-learner, creative, efficient and able to multi-task. He showed initiative and enthusiasm to learn, when assigned new projects.

After two years in ACE, he asked to move to Operations Team and was gladly accepted to the team. A strong team player, who is committed to do his best. He has a humble yet sociable personality and is well-liked by his colleagues and team mates.

Kyaw provided immaculate venues sales and support in the Alumni Office. In all the roles that he was assigned to, he executed them diligently. He takes pride in his work and always give his very best. Kyaw is both a bright and motivated staff. Always willing to share new ideas with colleagues. Kyaw embraces new challenges with an open mind and will execute duties assigned to him well.

Kyaw has a great working attitude and communication skills. He is creative in his work and designed the 1st OAR's Venue Kit. A commendable work. He is truly committed to his areas of responsibilities and a great team player. He will be an asset to any organisation that he joins.

Wishing him the very best in his future endeavours.

Sincerely,

Re: Reference for Mr Kyaw Win Shwe

We have had the pleasure of working with Kyaw Win Shwe as our event manager for two events, The Supply Chain Finance Community Forum, that we ran at the National University of Singapore in June 2017 and May 2018.

My company Adugeo Media is based in London, UK, so organizing the events in Singapore is somewhat challenging. We worked with Kyaw on all the pre-event planning and he managed the events on the day. Kyaw has been a pleasure to work with and his communication style and attention to detail has ensured that on both occasions the events have run smoothly and been a great success.

Kyaw has always been very attentive to our requirements, responding to our emails and phone calls in a positive and helpful manner and shown himself to be very pro-active in suggesting solutions to problems that we had in the run up to the event. Likewise, at the event itself Kyaw has gone out of his way to ensure that the event has run smoothly, that we have everything that we could need and solves any issues we have in a calm and friendly manner. We were impressed with his organizational skills, and we work with a lot of event managers across the world.

Kyaw has been a great asset to the events that we run at the NUS. He has shown himself to be a caring and attentive to our requirements, with a good communication style and has managed our events in a highly professional and competent manner. I would have no hesitation in recommending Kyaw, and feel that he would be a great asset to any organization.

Yours faithfully,

Diana

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

This is to certify that I have enjoyed significant contact with Mr Kyaw Win Shwe during his casual employment in the Office of the Vice-President (University & Global Relations), National University of Singapore from mid-October to end-Nov 2012. During this two month period, he was primarily assigned as the Project Co-ordinator for the Middle East Musical Night 2012 and the Qatar University Study Visit Programme, both of these events were held in Nov 2012. He also supported in various office administrative duties.

I am particularly impressed by Mr Kyaw's resourcefulness, drive and passion in planning, co-ordinating and executing the above two events. Most notably, Mr Kyaw initiated contacts with organizations for educational visits, liaised closely in catering matters, and supervised the logistical arrangements for the Qatar University Study Visit Programme. For the Middle East Musical Night, Mr Kyaw facilitated the planning of the event well, liaising with faculty members, musicians, performers and embassy staff. This is even more commendable because, for two weeks, I entrusted him with this important role while I was away on a business trip.

During his work stint in NUS, Mr Kyaw has demonstrated his flair in IT applications, fine organizational skills in drafting and fine-tuning the Study Visit itinerary, which incorporated many last minute adjustments and his commitment to the two projects. I am certain that his wonderful personality added significantly to the success of these two events.

I am confident that Mr Kyaw has the temperament, character, determination and capacity to grow and develop in his chosen academic and professional pursuits and I hereby highly commend him to you.

Yours sincerely,

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

KYAW WIN SHWE (FIN: G5680448Q)

Kyaw is a student from the Diploma in Infocomm Security Management (DISM) course, with the School of Digital Media and Infocomm Technology (DMIT).

As his lecturer and final year project's supervisor, I have observed Kyaw to be a polite, respectful, hardworking and dedicated student. He shows tremendous potential and aptitude in mastering any general and IT security related subject matters. He has an inquisitive mind and hunger for knowledge which drives him to explore beyond what is required in his course of study. He is independent and always demonstrates a strong commitment in completing his assignments and projects with high quality of work. All works expected of him were accomplished promptly, meticulously and professionally.

In his final year project, he was the deputy project leader and worked on a project entitled "Social Media Analyser". Kyaw showed a good grasp of the project materials with his knowledge particularly the software programming skills and contributed many valuable ideas to the project. He was able to develop excellent rapport with his team mates.

In addition, he was actively involved in many extra-curriculum activities such as Techfest@SP, Masterclass Seminar on Mobile Security and SP Open House. He also served as the Class Management Representative, the Organising Committee Member of the Freshmen Orientation (Interactive Media Club) and the Leader/Mentor in the 4iCare mentoring scheme for international students.

Kyaw's current Grade Point Average (GPA) score is 3.654 out of a scale of 4. He is an unassuming student to his lecturers and school mates, with an abundance of positive qualities. I am confident that Kyaw will go far in his further studies.

Character Reference for Kyaw Win Shwe

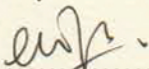

Name : Kyaw Win Shwe
ID No. : G5680448Q
Class : Sec. 4/5

Kyaw is an amiable and cheerful pupil whose smile never fails to warm hearts. He shows sincerity and respect when helping his peers and teachers. In class, Kyaw displays an eagerness to learn and is one who perseveres to do his personal best in his studies. He has a positive self-image and is not easily discouraged by setbacks.

Kyaw possesses leadership qualities which puts him in good stead as a student councilor. Nominated by his teachers and voted by his peers in Secondary 1, Kyaw has been serving the school's student council since then. Having a deep interest in IT, he has also been handling matters related to IT in his second and third year as a student councilor. In 2008, he was nominated and served as the Vice-President of the student council.

Kyaw has a passion for soccer and has been selected to be in the school team since Secondary 1. He has represented the school and played in various soccer competitions, as a center midfielder, at zonal and national levels.

Kyaw's commitment in both his studies and CCA gives him the potential to emerge as an all-rounder and one who would excel in his future endeavors.
